

Company

Originate from the Greely group in Ottawa, Canada. UNIQ Global established in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam since 2005 as a consulting firm offering services in the field of Underground Infrastructure Network.

UNIQ Global focusing on the need of telecommunication and cable operators, public utilities, municipalities and real-estate developers. We have professionals with extensive expertise in underground network development, from strategy, engineering conception, project management, training to complete network support to service the industry.

Please contact us for detail about our services

Mission

As a Client-Centric and Technology-Focused company, our mission is to turn knowledge into values for the benefits of our clients and our people. We committed to provide high quality, cost effective, reliable, innovative solutions & services to the industry.

Please see Our Values and Quality

Our People

We believe that quality starts with hiring the best people and continuously improve their skill and performance throughout their employment. Therefore, we ensure the on-going training and professional development of our personnel. We promote and support an environment of innovation and initiative where each member is given the ownership of, and responsibility for, the growth and development of the business and together we form a highly motivated, client-centric workforce dedicated to getting it right to our clients every time.

Please refer to the Careers section for employment opportunity at UNIQ Global.